

NEW JERSEY STATE LEAGUE OF MUNICIPALITIES ELECTED OFFICIALS HALL OF FAME

Mayor Richard S. Goldberg Inducted into Elected Official Hall of Fame

The New Jersey State League of Municipalities inducted Richard S. Goldberg into the Elected Officials Hall of Fame during the Twenty-Fifth Annual Mayors Legislative Day February 8, 2017 at the State House Annex in Trenton.

The honor is reserved for local municipal governing body members who, as of December 2016, served for more than twenty years in elected municipal office.

The president of the State League of Municipalities, Mayor Albert Kelly, of Bridgeton City, said, "The Elected Officials Hall of Fame recognizes these officials who have selflessly guided their communities through the good times and difficult times often with little recognition of their public service. This small token of appreciation focuses a light on their sacrifices over lengthy tenures, demonstrating how much they care and serving as excellent examples of civic pride for all citizens to emulate."

There are currently 585 inductees in the Elected Officials Hall of Fame, which can be viewed at www.njslom.com.
